

Death of Jake Hamon Described by Accused Girl on Witness Stand

Where in the — have you been? And I tried to quiet him. I told him, 'Please don't curse here. Do not make a scene. If you want to curse, and be mean to me and abuse me, let's go to the room.'

Eight Bandits Rob Stores; Owner Shot
LOS ANGELES, March 15. — A band of robbers, believed to number eight, operating in a stolen automobile, last night held up two drug stores here, taking $100 from one establishment and in the other shooting and probably fatally injuring George H. Skinner, proprietor, when he resisted.

CHIROPRACTOR GIVES BAIL.
STOCKTON, March 15. — Dr. Sophia Bellingskamp, the third of the Lodi chiropractors who were arrested on a charge of practicing medicine without a license issued by the State Board of Medical Examiners, was held to answer to the Superior Court today under $250 bail.

Accused Woman Tells Of Death of Jake Hamon

There are some men here. You must tell that way in public." "So he got up and I went upstairs to my room. I was afraid of Mr. Hamon, very afraid of him. I saw a look on his face I had never seen before. He was drunker than I had ever seen him in all the years I had known him. He was drunk and crazy. I don't think the whiskey was good red whiskey, as Mr. Nichols said. He usually drank good whiskey and he wasn't usually crazy like that. When I got to my room the doors were locked between our rooms and the bathroom door was locked. I rang for Bill, the porter, as I hadn't anything to eat all day.

HAMON ENTERED ROOM WITH PORTER, SHE SAYS
At breakfast I couldn't eat. I seldom eat any breakfast, and when Bill came and knocked on the door he came in with ice water and Mr. Hamon slipped in with him. I had to unlock the door for him. I was afraid of Mr. Hamon. I wanted to keep him away from me for 24 more hours and I could go to California and wait for him to sober up and come to use looking like a sweet and lover he had been before. So, he came in as Bill came in. Bill poured the ice water in the pitcher. Mr. Hamon paced up and down, running his hands through his hair, as he did when he was agitated. And the minute Bill went out and the door was closed, when Mr. Hamon said, "You know, where have you been?"

"He grabbed me at the same time and choked me and he choked me until I was blind and I couldn't see to think." "Now Miss Clara," interrupted Attorney McLean. "Just a minute, I will finish the story. Mr. McLean was apparently overcome with emotion." "All right."

THREATENED TO CUT HER THROAT, SHE ASSERTS
A. "He choked me and hit me and somehow he threw me down. I have been operated on in the back and it hurts me extremely. He took pains to kick me in the back and he kicked me and choked me. I struggled to get up, and did get up, and he choked me again and backed me up against the window, and choked me again and again and slapped me."

"Then again he wasn't satisfied with that and he twisted the skin on my wrist; he twisted and he wasn't satisfied with that; he bent my fingers back and tried to break them."

"And then he said, 'I will cut your throat,' and he reached for his knife. The knife had fallen out of his pocket in the afternoon while he was lying on the bed and I picked it up and put it over on the table after he walked out of the room, and then when he didn't have the knife in his pocket, he reached for the knife. I had given him, a little gold chain, and somehow, some way, that knife wasn't there."

HE WAS DRUNK AND CRAZY, SHE SAYS
"He looked around and in the meantime, in the interval, he was choking me and kicking me and beating me very badly. I cannot remember all of it, it is too much for anybody to remember. I endured that sort of torture."

Q. "Did he make any remarks to you?" A. "Well, I am getting to that, Mr. McLean."

Q. "What was that remark?" A. "I am getting to it. He said, 'You have been riding with some body, haven't you?' and I said, 'No, you know I haven't.' I knew that he knew I hadn't. He was drunk and crazy. When he didn't find his gold knife, he saw a knife over on the dresser he had given me a long time ago—an old knife of his—just to sharpen pencils and use around the room. I had it sharpened. It was very, very sharp."

"He reached for that knife and said, 'I would just as soon slit your throat as I would draw on this cigar.'"

REACHES INTO PURSE AND GETS HER GUN
"When he reached for that knife I knew the time had come. I unconsciously or consciously, or somehow, reached back in my purse on the window sill and got my little gun. I asked him to stand back and let me pass."

Q. "Well, what did you do with the gun, with the pistol, when you got hold of it?"

A. "I held it on him."

Q. "All right, describe what took place?" A. "He did back away sort of behind a chair and put his hands on the back of the chair. He didn't raise his hands. I didn't ask him to. I wasn't very far from him when I passed between the corner of the bed and Mr. Hamon and the chair to get to the door to get out. He backed around to the door between our rooms and then I went to the door to get out. Holding my hand like this (indicating) to back up to the door to unlock it. The lock he had locked when Bill went out and when he did that, I couldn't see him. He was a little back of the corner of the bathroom when I unlocked the door, so I had to let him out of my sight."

ILLUSTRATES TO JURY HOW SHOT WAS FIRED
"And, understand, when I unlocked the door to go up, that instant he turned off the light and raised the chair to strike me and did strike me. I could see from the light of the back of the light in the room from the outside through the transom. The light in my room was not lit. Mr. Hamon turned it out himself. He struck me with that chair and the gun went off."

Q. "What happened when Hamon hit you with the chair? Come down here and illustrate that to the jury. This is the pistol, isn't it? Or one just like it?" A. "It looks just like it."

Q. "Just like it. Now, what position—" A. "It is perfectly safe."

Q. "What position were you in when the chair came down?" A. "At this point the defendant took a position in front of the jury box and with the revolver held in her hand illustrated her version of the shooting."

The defendant further testified that Hamon gave her the money and told her to buy the gun. She said she and Hamon always carried guns when they went to the oil fields.

Q. "After the pistol fired, what took place between you and Mr. Hamon?" A. "He raised his vest to show me where he was hit. There was a spot of blood about that big around" (indicating a four-inch circle).

Q. "Did he leave the room then?" A. "Yes, sir; he left the room. He said, 'I will say it was an accident. If anyone asks you about this, tell them it is all right. I will make the explanations.'"

At this point the witness broke down and wept softly with her handkerchief to her eyes.

The accused woman then told of taking her automobile to the garage and of retiring for the night. The next day, she said, she visited Hamon at the hospital.

Court was adjourned for lunch at this time.

Recalled to the stand this afternoon, Clara Hamon described her last moments with Hamon at the hospital the next day.

"He pulled me over and kissed me," she said. "He told me that had he not been drunk it (the shooting) couldn't have happened."

She said Hamon had asked her to go away. She also testified Frank L. Ketch, administrator of Hamon's estate, had given her $5000 to get away.

"He said for me to tell officers—any way—but to go south and to keep going," she said.

Other events incident to her flight into Mexico were recounted in detail by the witness.

A riot interrupted the Clara Smith Hamon trial shortly after it convened this morning when murder fans staged a demonstration against the prosecution.

Attorneys for the prosecution, while interrogating a witness, attacked the reputation of the defendant's mother.

"The old mother of this defendant is as good a woman as any who ever bore a lawyer," shouted W. F. McLean, of the defense counsel.

COURTROOM ORDERED CLEARED BY JUDGE
The courtroom was in an uproar. Murder fans arose in their seats, shouting angrily and making gestures at the State's counsel.

Judge Thomas W. Champion then ordered the courtroom cleared.

The aged mother of the defendant broke down, sobbing uncontrollably. A moment later the pretty defendant burst into tears. She had to be led from the courtroom by the bailiffs.

Bailiffs meanwhile fought with the crowd.

Spectators refused to move. Bailiffs stood about helplessly.

Shout "Buck! Garrett! shouted to his aides to beware of "el-shooters."

"Look out for trouble, boys," he yelled above the uproar.

Judge Champion then ordered the jury removed to its private room on the fourth floor of the courthouse.

Sheriff Garrett, with hand on his gun, ordered his deputies to "risk" all male murder fans. Garrett supervised the "disarming" as the bailiffs and deputies took a number of weapons away from the spectators.

A few minutes earlier Deputy Sheriff "Bud" Bellow added to the uproar by rushing to the front of the courtroom and leveling a gun in the face of the son of one of the State's counsel.

Bellow ordered the man out of the courtroom and escorted him. He was unarmed.

Garrett meanwhile stood behind the judge's desk, keenly watching for gun play.

Court was then adjourned until 11 o'clock.

The fans remained, however.

"Frank, I know you promised me a taffeta dress for Easter, but you need clothes more than I do, so I'll wait." "No, you won't, dear. I've had a big day today—that is to say I've learned a lot. That young sister of mine ran into my office today all dressed up, and when I asked her where? How? She told me about a place we could all buy the finest clothes for almost a song and besides that, take as long as necessary." ENGLISH TO SEND SPECIAL AGENTS ON U. S. VISIT Allied Debts and Disarmament Will Be Discussed With Harding.

By RALPH H. TURNER
United Press Staff Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, March 15.—The British government has announced the organization of a special mission which it proposes to send to the United States within the next month to convey its congratulations and wishes of success to the new administration and discuss outstanding questions between this government and Britain.

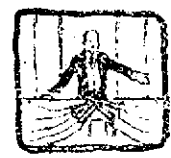

Among the subjects to be discussed, it was understood today, are an association of nations, disarmament, German reparations and Britain's indebtedness to the United States.

The personnel of the delegation, it is learned, is being chosen with the utmost care, with the view of eliminating any factors which might arouse hostility among the strongly pro-British element in this country.

The British decision to send a mission to the United States is in line with the action of the French government in appointing Rene Viviani, former premier, to discuss foreign affairs with the Harding administration.

WET RESOLUTIONS ARE REPORTED OUT BY COMMITTEE

Approve Requests To Congress to Amend Volstead Act.

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Sacramento, March 15.—The remarkably easy manner in which the Badaracco and Hornblower resolutions, memorializing Congress to amend the Volstead act to permit the manufacture and sale of light wines and beer, were reported out of the federal relations committee, is the talk of the legislature today.

The Badaracco resolution fixes a limit of alcoholic content on wine at 15 per cent and on beer at 4 1/2 per cent, while the Hornblower resolution attempts no restriction.

After a bitter argument, in which Senators Edon and Harris spoke against the resolutions and Assemblyman Badaracco, who introduced them, voted five to one to pass the measures out.

Chairman Arthur Wendering of Berkeley voiced the only negative vote, while McGee, Ross, Parker, Bishop and Webster voted favorably.

The argument at times became so heated that Chairman Wendering was forced to restore order.

"San Francisco is willing to vote for any kind of a law regardless of the moral issues at stake," was one of the charges hurled at Badaracco by Harris before the committee adjourned.

Thelen's Bond Plan for U. C. Meets Opposition

By AD B. SCHUSTER

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Sacramento, March 15.—Encouragement for the belief that the University of California building program and the new building for the farm at Davis will not be included in a bond issue, but will be met by appropriation, has developed in the senate hearings on the budget. Will Thelen, speaking for the Taxpayers' Association, has told the senators that he does not favor the bond issue plan suggested by Max Thelen, as he holds it less economical, and that the belief of his association is that necessary buildings should be built by appropriation.

In most of the other points and in the belief that the state budget may be cut materially if agreed with Mr. Thelen, said Fischer, "I have given him the use of my figures, and am working to the same end. We wish it understood, however, that we do not stand as favoring the bond issue, particularly as the King bill has passed, and as there should be a larger amount of money available. We are for cutting all unnecessary expense and for trimming the budget in the other ways advocated."

ARGUED FOR BOND ISSUE.
The University would build a physics building, an education building and also a building at Davis, Thelen argued that all should go into a bond issue, which is taken to mean here that all would be lost as no bond election would occur.

"If these buildings are included in a bond issue," Clyde L. Seaver of the State Board of Control, said today in reply to a question, "the legislature should provide a contingent appropriation so that if the bonds did not carry the needed structures could be built."

Seaver has started in on his answer to Thelen's budget cutting program. That the Board of Control did figure on the fact that the peak of living had been passed, but estimated that the reduction would be no larger than 7 or 8 per cent in the next two years, was a statement made. When asked to explain why he put the decrease so far below the actual figures to be obtained in the market, he replied that it was on advice of Prof. Carl B. Plehn of the finance department of the University of California, and that Plehn had

M'CABE REMAINS STATE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER

Governor Reappoints Official—Sets At Rest Rumors of Seeking Federal Job.

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.

SACRAMENTO, March 15.—Governor William D. Stephens today reappointed Alexander McCabe state insurance commissioner, thereby setting at rest all rumors of the latter's candidacy for a place in the federal administration.

It is said that McCabe intends to devote himself to an exhaustive study of insurance business, so that when eventually he does retire from public life, it will be for the purpose of engaging in that line of work.

Today the legislature was proceeding with a purely routine program. Because of the apparent lack of any issues the members are beginning to talk of early adjournment. It is understood that Senator Arthur Breed of Alameda county has an idea that the legislature can finish by April 20 or 22. That would complete a two-months' session for the second half. Heretofore the opinion has prevailed that the issues are to carry along until May.

Senator W. D. Duncan of Oroville has promised to introduce a bill amending the game laws so as to permit Indians to take game out of season if in need of food.

It is intended to bring the Harris act before the legislature in another form. The author says that he is aware of opposition to the measure which was voted down in November. For this reason the bill may be introduced under another name in the assembly within the next two weeks.

Tonight the assembly committee on the revision of criminal procedure, of which Edward Manning is chairman, will have a hearing on Mrs. Anna Saylor's bill to abolish capital punishment in the case of minors. Leading elbowedness of the state are expected to lead the fight for an amendment to the present law. Prison Director Judge Charles E. McLaughlin of Sacramento has already taken a position against the repeal of the capital punishment law in any form, and he will probably attend the meeting.

CAVE MAN STUFF CAUSES WIFE TO SUE FOR DIVORCE

"A man is a fool to get married!" This philosophy dinned into the ears of Mrs. Vivian Clark by Vernon A. Clark, her husband, with occasional attack by the husband, caused her to file a suit for divorce in the Superior Court today, according to the allegations in her complaint.

"A woman thinks more of a man when he beats her up," was one of the other maxims on which Clark based his matrimonial relations, according to Mrs. Clark. That he proceeded to work out this theory and choked her and threw her across the room of their home, is another charge made by the wife.

Mrs. Clark, in her suit, indicates that the "cave man stuff" did not succeed.

Clark also announced frequently that a man was foolish to exhibit affection for a woman and that "home life" was no good. Mrs. Clark charges that her husband was sullen and ill-humored at times.

In her complaint she asks $10 a week alimony and custody of 5-year-old June Barbara Clark.

WOULD PROTECT SCENARIOS.
SACRAMENTO, March 15.—Assemblyman Baker's bill, designed to prevent theft of motion picture scenarios, was favorably reported last night by the Senate Judiciary committee. It provides a plan for filing copies of scenarios, stories, lectures and sermons with the secretary of state, such copies to be used as prima facie evidence in civil actions to recover damages.

STATE MAY AID DISTRESSED PITT RIVER INDIANS

Bill to Amend Game Laws Is Promised By Senator As Food Provision.

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.

SACRAMENTO, March 15.—Following a conference with Martin Hansen, the governor's private secretary, and Dick Collins of the State Board of Equalization, Frank M. Newbert, president of the State Fish and Game Commission, wired Game Warden James White at Redding to make a thorough investigation of the report that the Pitt River Indians are on the verge of starvation.

The conference was the result of an appeal for help made to Governor Stephens last Saturday by Johnnie Leger, who was sent by his tribe to Sacramento to ask state executive for a law which would permit Indians not on reservations to hunt deer and take trout out of season in order to carry them through hungry winters.

Leger told the governor that his people, weakened by lack of food, were falling victims of disease and death. He said the Pitts would be able to sustain themselves through the winter months if they could kill deer and catch fish.

Senator W. D. Duncan of Oroville has promised to introduce a bill amending the game laws so as to permit Indians to take game out of season if in need of food.

UTILIZATION IS INNER PROBLEM

SHINGTON, March 15.—Fur-tunately, the tunnel at Urbana, where the University of Illinois is located, is conducting experiments to determine the best method of moving the required amount of air through the tunnel.

A number of Yale University students recently volunteered their services in tests to determine the effect of the motor gases on the human system. Other experiments have been made by the bureau at Pittsburgh to determine the amount of air necessary to be mixed with the gases to render them harmless.

A final check on all experiments will be made at the Princeton (Pa.)
experimental station, where an oval shaped tunnel having similar construction ducts to those proposed in

ECONOMY AGAINST HEALTH OPPOSED

An attack by Max Thelen at Sacramento on the subsidies granted to tuberculosis hospitals and public welfare work brought from Health Officer Kirby Smith a critical response.

"Oakland and every other city ought to know what is going on," says Dr. Smith. "The proposal would hit us hard. It would undo the work of years. It would tear down just where we are trying to build up. We cannot stand for it."

The Thelen plan, according to Smith, would eliminate public health nurses and dozens of other experts making for the health of communities, also crippling the baby hospitals, the study of social diseases, and the suppression of tuberculosis.

"Thelen is calling for economy," says Smith. "That is all right, but economy against the public health is no economy at all."

"The state means cities in the cost of this work, dollar for dollar. Every dollar the city puts up is duplicated by the state. As a result of the broad research work under this system, California has the lowest typhoid rate in the union, and one of the lowest infant mortality rates in the union. In 1906 there were 160 children dying per 100,000. Now there are 75. It is that sort of result which justifies the expense."

the Hudson river tunnel and an axial length of 400 feet is being constructed under ground. Efforts will be made to determine in this final experiment:

The diffusion of exhaust gases in the cross-section of the tunnel.

Temperature conditions as affected by the operation of internal combustion motors.

Physiological effects of temperature, exhaust gases, and smoke under operating conditions.

Do you eat H-O
HORNEY'S OATS

-or just oats?

The difference:

1. We steam-cook H-O, so you only have to cook it a few minutes.
2. Pan-toasting brings out an entirely different and delicious flavor, and gives it that rich, golden color.
3. It cooks up flaky—not sticky and pasty.
4. It comes to you clean and fresh, in an airtight Waxseal wrapper.

Grip Left You a Bad Back?

ARE you getting over a cold or grip only to find yourself a victim of backache? Are you suffering headaches, too, dizzy spells, a dull, tired, worn-out feeling and annoying kidney irregularities? Then don't delay! Physicians agree that a vast number of the worst cases of kidney trouble are the result of germ diseases. In every infectious disease the system is alive with poisonous germs and bacteria. The kidneys are overwhelmed with the rush of new work; they break down, become congested, inflamed and diseased. Too often the real trouble is lost sight of until some dangerous kidney ailment sets in. If your kidneys are falling behind, don't wait for serious trouble. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills today. Doan's have helped thousands and should help you. Ask your neighbor!

These are Oakland Cases:

Shattuck Avenue	Eighteenth Street	Market Street
L. E. Pughard, proprietor grocery 1128 Shattuck avenue, says: "I was all bent over like an old man and my kidneys were so weak I had no control over their action. A fellow workman suggested I try Doan's Kidney Pills. Everything I had tried had failed, but Doan's helped me. Three boxes cured me." (Statement given April 23, 1917.)	Mrs. Mary W. Klopf, 514 Eighteenth street, says: "I had a terrible, tearing- down pain in my back and through my bladder. I had awful dizzy spells and my kidneys were weak and acted too fre- quently. I was told I would have to un- dergo an operation. A friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and after using three boxes I could see improvement. I kept on until I had taken five boxes. Though I was in a critical condition when I began the use of Doan's I was cured."	E. R. Moore, electric welder, 2337 Mar- ket street, says: "I was bothered quite a bit with my kidneys. I had a lame and aching back and my kidneys were irregular in action. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and used them as directed, and they fixed me up in good shape. They strengthened my back and kidneys. I use Doan's occa- sionally if a cold settles on my kidneys and they are sure to give quick relief."

BAD COUGH; NIGHT SWEATS; LOST WEIGHT

Mr. Coleman thought his time had come. But he's well now.

"I was taken with a dry, hard cough about 6 months ago. Finally I got so sore across the chest I could hardly breathe. Had night sweats so bad everything would be wringing wet, and coughed continually until I thought it would kill me. Had no appetite, spent over $100 on doctors and medicines, and was worse off than when I started.

"The first bottle of Milks Emulsion did me more good than the $100 spent for other treatment. It soon gave me a good appetite, my cough left me and I have regained the flesh and strength I had before I was sick."

Arthur Coleman, Box 381, Helena, Ark. You need an appetite, a good stomach, and some real strength if you want to fight off disease. Give Milks Emulsion a trial at its maker's risk.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repelling the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and consumption are promptly relieved.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like a candy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 75c and $1.50 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

TRAINED LOBBY AT WASHINGTON CALLED MENAGE

"Assistant Government" Is Branded By Chief of Farmer Society.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Existence of a "new and powerful assistant government" in Washington, made up of the representatives of various interests, is charged in a statement, issued by C. S. Barrett, president of the National Farmers' Union, and chairman of the National Board of Farm Organizations.

The assistant government," he says, "has one advantage over the constitutional government. It is more effectively trained. It is an association of specialists. Eminent men and women who know all the legislative, administrative and bureaucratic avenues, streets and alleys, belong to this interesting and patriotic collection of men and women."

NAMES OF MEMBERS
Individuals named by Barrett are: Joseph DeLoe of Chicago, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce; A. P. Thom, general counsel of the Southern Railway; J. D. A. Morrow, vice-president of the National Coal Association; G. H. Cushing, managing director of the Wholesale Coal Dealers' Association; J. A. Emery, general counsel for the National Association of Manufacturers; Willis Compton of the Hardwood Lumbermen's Association; J. H. Kirby of the Southern Pine Association; and R. T. Strassburg, president of the National Canners Association.

Other interests which Barrett says are represented in the "assistant government" are:

BIG FIRMS INCLUDED
The Institute of American Meat Packers, the American Automobile Association, the Southern Pine Men, Manufacturers Chemists Association of America, Council of American Cotton Manufacturers, Southern Industrial Education Society, Founders' Association, Highway Industries' Association, American Automobile Dealers' Association, National Bureau of Wholesale Lumber Distributors, American Mining Congress, American Realty Exchange, National Merchant Marine Association, League of Commission Merchants of the United States, National Oil Bureau, National Petroleum Association, American Patent Law Association, National Committee of Gas and Electric Service, National Committee on Public Utilities' Conditions, Dixie Freight Association, National Association for Constitutional Government, National Association for Protection of American Rights in Mexico, National Popular Government League, National Committee to Secure Rank for Army Nurses, National Negro Business League, National Voters League, National Forestry Association, National Patriotic Press, League for the Preservation of American Independence, National Association of Colored Races, National Committee of American and Mexican Relief, National Federation of Federal Employees and National Women's Trade Union League.

Even the foreign governments are not without their representatives, according to Barrett. He says:

FOREIGNERS INTERESTED
Of course, it is improper for a foreign diplomat to attempt to influence American legislative or executive action, but a way has been found to accomplish this. Legislative committees have been created under the names of educational bureaus or such like. These have no definite or tangible connection with any accredited diplomat, nevertheless, the country which the diplomat represents is the beneficiary of their activities."

QUAKERS TELL OF SUFFERINGS AMONG IRISH

Campaign Is On To Raise Funds in California To Feed Needy.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A dramatic picture of the misery the Quaker relief workers are finding in Ireland was painted in a cablegram from Cork received yesterday by E. M. Tobin, chairman of the California Committee for Relief in Ireland, which will open a ten-day drive for funds throughout the northern part of the state on Thursday.

Tobin, emphasizing the non-sectarian, non-political nature of the relief work undertaken for the American Committee for Relief in Ireland, issued the following first-hand report received from Samuel D. McCoy, a member of the Quaker relief unit now in Ireland:

"DUBLIN, March 12.—On his return to Dublin yesterday, C. J. France (head of the relief unit) received $6250 you sent February 23 and has given $500 to Douglas to transmit to child feeding committee of Dublin Corporation. Longstrich has completed his report of similar needs in Cork city and is now making a similar study in Belfast. Concerning Cork city, he reports the appropriation of $2500 made by Cork Corporation to give one daily meal to 3000 young children throughout the year 1921 will be exhausted by April 1, and no prospect that corporation can make new appropriation before December. He describes the situation as precarious in the extreme and recommends the American Committee for Relief in Ireland allocate $350 weekly to provide meals for school children for Cork city from April 1 to December, or a total annual appropriation of $17,500.

"The single meal they now receive executive action, but a way has been found to accomplish this. Legislative committees have been created under the names of educational bureaus or such like. These have no definite or tangible connection with any accredited diplomat, nevertheless, the country which the diplomat represents is the beneficiary of their activities."

On Sale Drug Dept., Kahn's

daily consists of one bun and a quarter pint of milk at a cost of three and one-third cents. Reporting on the condition of the poor in Cork city, Longstrich found in a great preponderance of cases all members of laborers' families live, cook and sleep in one small room which usually has but one bed. This is the city's typical case, one room inhabited by five persons; no bed clothing, except ragged coats, and where the father of the family had been able to earn only $25 since Christmas. In another case the father and five young children sleep in one bed. "As previously cabled, housing conditions of the poor in Dublin and Belfast are equally miserable. We have now visited seventy-five towns in nineteen counties, including thirty-six of forty-two cooperative creameries destroyed, and thus personally visited ninety per cent of all places where serious damage occurred; and will receive the support of the community."

In a second telegram to Captain J. F. Lacey, former associate of Hoover in war relief and in the food administration, who has accepted the national directorship of the campaign for a national quota of $10,000,000 for relief in Ireland, Hoover said:

"I am glad to see that you have undertaken direction of funds for relief in Ireland. I have never believed that race, religion or politics should enter upon questions of alleviation of human misery. Your self-sacrifice and efficient work as my associate in the administration of the Commission for Relief in Belgium assures me that the work you have undertaken will be efficiently and economically carried out."

Tobin announced yesterday that funds are being received daily at the Palace hotel headquarters of the California committee, in the name of the American Committee for Relief in Ireland.

In England farthings are legal tender to the extent of a shilling.

They are Happy and Well
You Should Be the Same

A LARGE number of women's ailments are not surgical ones. Serious displacements or radical changes have not yet taken place.

A tiny part in a fine clock may become loose and cause the clock to gain or lose. If not attended to in time, the part may fall from its place and cause serious trouble. So it is with women's ailments, they start from simple causes; but if allowed to continue, produce serious conditions.

When the warning symptoms are first noted, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve the present troublesome ailment, and to prevent the development of serious trouble.

North Troy, N.Y.—"When I was a young girl I had a severe female trouble. Mother gave me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and after taking several bottles I was strong and well. When my daughter got married she was feeling miserable and I recommended your medicine. She is greatly improved in health and has a beautiful baby boy four months old. So you see this letter comes from the third generation and you may use it as you wish."—Mrs. R. M. GREENAWAY, 567 4th Ave., North Troy, N.Y.

Hutchinson, Kan.—"I was about 13 years old when I developed a female weakness. My mother took me to a doctor and I doctored for several months. I was too sick to do anything, was as thin as a could be, and my complexion was yellow. Mother had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it had helped her so much that she got some for me and before I had finished the second bottle I was feeling fine and have been ever since."—Mrs. J. A. STEVENS, 716 E. 9th St., Hutchinson, Kansas.

ACTIVE WOMEN

Women Are Preparing for Conventions

By EDNA B. KINARD.
 Convention plans are in the air. May will bring the annual conference of Alameda district, California Federation of Women's Clubs, with hundreds of leaders from Alameda, San Joaquin, Calaveras, Tuolumne and all parts of Contra Costa county to Antioch, to give account of the past twelve months and lift up the standard for the future. The calendar is reserving May 2, 4 and 5 for the important gathering.

San Francisco will host the annual convention of the Second district, California Congress of Mothers, on April 14 and 15. The counties of Alameda, San Francisco, San Mateo, Contra Costa, Napa, Sonoma and Marin will send their representatives to the two-day conference.

Both groups have about completed the personnel of the convention committees which are busily engaged in getting programs into shape. Election rumors are keeping the members on their toes.

Mrs. George Preston of Oakland has been named chairman of the credentials committee by the district board, C. F. W. C. Serving with her on this important body will be Mrs. Harry Sharp of Lodi and Mrs. I. N. Frink of San Leandro.

To Mrs. Fisher Clarke of Stockton the chairmanship of the resolutions committee has gone. Oakland will be represented by Mrs. W. W. Robinson, president of Lakeview, Mrs. Robert Thom of Sonoma is the third member.

The business of presenting the official ticket has been given into the hands of Mrs. J. G. Kearney of Alameda, Mrs. L. F. Hammond of Oakland, Mrs. M. L. Single of Stockton, Mrs. J. P. Spenser of Walnut Creek and Mrs. C. L. Dodge of Crockett.

The burden of the program rests upon Mrs. Annie Little Barry of Berkeley, Mrs. R. R. Roger of Hayward, Mrs. George Tigg of Oakland and Mrs. E. M. Beards of Antioch.

Miss Belle Garrette, president of the Adelphi Club; Mrs. Charles Taber, president of the Oakland Club, and Mrs. Dow C. Golden, president of Fruitvale Woman's Club, will frame the rules and regulations.

The new city hall in Antioch will host the convention, which will stress "citizenship" during the three days of its deliberations. A brilliant dinner is being arranged at Byron Springs for the evening of Wednesday, May 4. Contra Costa clubs within motoring distance are planning a series of teas in honor of their visitors.

Mrs. L. C. Grasser of Oakland has been appointed to head the committee on credentials for the district convention, California Congress of Mothers. The program is under the direction of Mrs. H. G. Tardy of Oakland, who will retire after two years of service as president of the active group. The following convention committee chairmen have been named:

Resolutions, Mrs. George V. Hatch, Berkeley; rules and regulations, Mrs. S. Hopkins, registration, Mrs. Charles Murphy, ushers, Mrs. E. T. Hall, pages, Mrs. E. Hoerthorn, publicity, Mrs. L. P. Boyce; general arrangements, Mrs. George Harris; hospitality, Mrs. B. F. Stoll.

With Mrs. Harry Ewing, state president, en route to the national convention in Washington, D. C., Mrs. Hugh Bradford of Sacramento, second vice-president, will become the convention guest of honor. Exhibits in connection with department reports are being planned by several chapters. San Francisco is opening the Civic Center to the twenty-second session. Local women have in the planning some delightful hospitality, which will include a motor trip on the opening day, following by a musical and reception in the Girls' High school in the evening.

Because it will be all fun is no reason to suppose that the Oakland Club has not a serious motive behind the announcement for the Country Fair and Barn Dance in St. Paul's parish house on the afternoon and evening of Tuesday, March 22. It is merely one of the methods which they have taken in realizing a clubhouse. Mrs. J. P. Potter is general chairman of the benefit. Her aides follow: Rosemary, Mrs. G. N. Blackburn, Mrs. Herbert Stout, Mrs. Robert Gaylord; fancy booth—Mrs. E. M. Breed, Mrs. Frank A. Hodapp, Mrs. Mitchell Thompson; jam and jelly booth—Mrs. E. D. Dwyer, Mrs. C. C. Smoot; aprons—Mrs. E. B. Bixby, Mrs. F. A. Stearns; fortune-telling, slideshows—Mrs. Leon Turner, Miss Florence Miller; home-made candles—Mrs. W. Rieher, Mrs. Paul A. Belsor; apple cider—Mrs. J. E. Manerhan, Mrs. Henry Clark; dance—Mrs. L. G. Campbell, Mrs. W. W. Dennis, Mrs. Gus Bradt.

Mrs. O. P. Cole, membership chairman, Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs, will be the guest of honor and speaker at Fremont Parent-Teacher Association tomorrow afternoon in the Little Theater of the school. Upon the presentation of the report of the nominating committee officers will be elected for the coming year. Mrs. A. B. Thurston, president, will preside.

Miss Sara Cunningham, cousin of Mrs. Whitcomb Reid, will be the speaker following the Thursday luncheon of the Home Club. Mrs. C. W. Gompertz as hostess will be assisted by Mrs. B. B. Swayne, Mrs. E. R. Talbot, Mrs. F. M. Smith, Mrs. E. P. Vaughn, Mrs. J. Van Hooser, Mrs. B. H. Welch, Mrs. C. J. Waterhouse, Mrs. Bradford Webster, Miss Emma Wellman.

Dr. J. H. MacKay, A. E. Hough, C. F. A. Lee, Mrs. A. B. Quinn, Mrs. R. R. Smith and Miss Lucy Shinn have been elected to the nominating committee.

College Paper Gets News By Wireless
 SEATTLE, March 15.—The University of Washington Daily, published by the university school of journalism, will cover the entire Pacific Coast by wireless in its inter-collegiate news service. It was announced today by an aerial which will handle the news service as far south as Stanford University at Palo Alto, Cal., is being installed on the engineering building on the university campus by members of the University of Washington Radio Club.

FIRE SWEETS TOWN
 RISEN, Ariz., March 15.—Fire of undetermined origin yesterday wiped out a large part of the business section of Benson, a small town in western Cochise county. The loss is estimated at about $150,000.

HARDING, OREGON BOTH BELONG TO KIWANIS CLUBS

Possibility of Both Meeting At Cleveland Convention Is Seen.

The possibilities in the direction of further promoting amicable relations between the United States and Mexico through the fact that President Harding and President Obregon are both members of the Kiwanis, was touched upon at the Kiwanis Club luncheon at the Hotel Oakland yesterday. Dr. Francis W. Russell was the principal speaker, Holles E. Dann, state superintendent of music for Pennsylvania, being unable to reach Oakland in time for his engagement.

Dr. Russell told of his experiences at the Chicago convention of the district governors of the Kiwanis, touching upon the various important plans which the organization has outlined. The keynote of the convention, according to Dr. Russell, was the sincerity of the members in giving up their time to further the cause of the club and in making their activities national in scope as well as covering civic development.

The possibility of President Harding and President Obregon meeting at the Kiwanis convention which is to be held in Cleveland, was mentioned in connection with the cementing of the friendly relations between the two republics.

President Harding read a personal letter received from President Harding in reply to telegraphed congratulations sent to Harding at the time of his inauguration. The President's letter was given in the letter read by Leach was sent by Harding as an additional acknowledgment.

School Board to Investigate Charges That Boys Are Permitted to Gamble

Impure Candy Is Also to Be Probed

The whole question concerning alleged impure candy sold to school children in stores near schools was referred last night by the Board of Education to a committee consisting of Director Chandler, President J. J. Kramer of the Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs, Director Florence LaGanke of the Home Economics department of the schools, Superintendent of Schools Fred Hunter and George W. Fitch, representing the Western Confectioners' Association. The committee is authorized to bring its findings before the Health Center. It is also authorized to bring to the attention of the Commissioner of Public Health and Safety, and the Chief of Police, the information that some of the stores near the schools are operating slot machines.

Mrs. Daisy Short of the Board of Education says that a full investigation will be asked concerning other subjects, even worse than impure candy near the schools. "There is a tire shop near a high school," she says, where I understand that school children are gambling daily, especially the boys. This matter will be laid before the Chief of Police.

We also hear of certain dancing going on in these shops in some instances. Candy stores near schools are not objectionable, but when they become resorts, they are. For the candy, the Department of Home Economics was requested to give all possible publicity to the injurious products contained in the alleged cheap candy. The Board of Education instructed the committee to make a complete and sweeping investigation and act on the findings. Meantime, the city health officer is conducting a probe of his own.

After the candy proposition was disposed of for the time, the board instructed Business Manager Barzee to advertise for bids for the construction of the Dwyer and Stonehurst schools, bids to be received April 4.

Chicago Councilmen Are Guests of S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—Studying San Francisco's municipal street railway and traffic problems, thirty-five members of the transportation committee of the Chicago city council, two of whom are women, are in the city today. The delegation, headed by Mayor R. F. Keller, Jr., city engineer of Chicago, arrived here from the Windy City yesterday and established headquarters at the Palace hotel. They were welcomed by a committee of the city council headed by Supervisor James E. Power. This morning they were taken over the municipal street railway lines and tonight they will be tendered a banquet at the Palace hotel. Tomorrow there will be an automobile ride over the boulevards and down the peninsula with luncheon at the Lakeside club. In the afternoon they will leave for Portland.

Hiking Club To Hold Campfire Supper

A camp-fire supper and dance will be enjoyed by members of the Contra Costa Hiking Club tomorrow evening in John Hinkel Park, North Berkeley. The party will gather about 6 o'clock about a great open fireplace, where hot coffee will be brewed and other edibles warmed. Following a short entertainment, the Contra Costans will adjourn to the park clubhouse for an informal dance.

Influenza Is Still Menace, Says Briton

LONDON, March 15.—In the report issued by the Ministry of Health on the epidemic of influenza, of 1918-1919 it is stated that the cause of the disease is a problem "still unsolved." The report is the result of what is described as the "first intensive study of the great and devastating scourge that swept Europe and Asia and, during the space of a few months, claimed a larger number of victims than fell during the whole of the European war."

It is stated that the immediate outlook is not such as to inspire confidence. "Until a universal improvement in the standard of comfort and the conditions of life is secured there will be no prospect of activity mitigating the incidence of the deadly disease. Other diseases have been brought under control; influenza still eludes us," the Health Ministry admits.

Avoid Clash With Police. Urges Hunter

The Oakland School Board has neither the power nor the desire to interfere with the functions of any other municipal department. This statement was made today by Superintendent of Schools Fred Hunter, not only as a direct result of the Hennessy case in East Oakland, but as a rule for the guidance of all educators. Thomas F. Hennessy, principal of Lazarus school, is now under discussion by Hunter and by police officials. In trying to gain the confidence of a gang of young waterfront residents, mostly foreigners, Hennessy is alleged to have aroused the ire of the police. Superintendent Hunter received official notification about Hennessy from Chief Thompson late yesterday afternoon. The entire case will be reviewed before the Superintendent's Council Wednesday morning. Hennessy has been cited to appear.

"Americanization work," says Hunter, "is a vital necessity to the future of Oakland and our whole nation, but it can be done without conflict with the police officials or any other department."

Religious Training For Children Urged

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—Suggestions for an adequate religious education of the children of America were made last night by Dr. William E. Gardner, executive secretary of the Episcopal church of America. Dr. Gardner addressed a conference of clergy and laity at Grace Cathedral, San Francisco. Bishop Edward Lamb Parsons presided.

Church ideals, vocational guidance, teacher training, church school service league, senior department, religious music, religious literature and public school co-operation were among the subjects discussed at the conference.

Dr. Gardner advocated a plan whereby children of the public schools might be excused for a few hours each week to give opportunity for religious instruction by competent teachers.

Club Would Raise School Money By Drive

If a neighborhood desires to have its promised school built, it must raise the money for the project. This project cannot be sold by the Board of Education, can the neighborhood conduct a bond-selling drive of its own? This matter has been referred to the District Attorney for a legal opinion, following receipt by the Board of Education of a letter from the Rockridge Improvement club. The club says it appreciates that the present bond market is stagnant and the Oakland school bonds cannot readily be sold, so it suggests a "drive" if necessary, to raise the money in the district.

The club, of course, holds that the money earned from bonds sold in the district should be applied to that particular school and no other. Whether such action can be taken by a Board of Education is a question. "If people want to buy sufficient bonds to build the schools we will be more than pleased," says the club members, "but it is a question as to just how it can be done." A decision will be announced.

New England Seeks Hospital For Heroes
BOSTON, March 15.—The Boston Chamber of Commerce announced today that it had taken up the fight for a federal hospital to be located in New England for disabled service men. Requests that the chamber take such action have been made by the American Legion and other bodies. The directors announced that the full weight of the chamber's 1500 membership would be placed behind the bill for a federal hospital in New England.

after the District Attorney has given his opinion. It is agreed that a "drive" of this sort would greatly stimulate the building of schools in Oakland. The most question about the proposed new Bay school will be thoroughly discussed in open meeting before the board's building committee Wednesday evening. It had been planned to use the present old Bay school structure as the nucleus of an extended school-house and some Bay school residents were for it, but a storm of objection was aroused by citizens who held that they were entitled to a new building.

At a meeting at Golden Gate hall last Thursday night, the great majority favored a brand new school. This decision was transmitted to the Board of Education last night. The Wednesday night discussion will lead to some definite decision, it is expected.

Registration of Autos For Year Gains 1,645,849

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Motor cars registered in the United States last year numbered 2,211,295, an increase of 1,645,849 over the preceding year, or 22 per cent, the bureau of public roads announced today. The registration and license fees amounted to $102,034,106. In New York state alone the number of cars registered in 1920 exceeded the total registration for the United States in 1910 and the revenue derived in the Empire state from this source was about equal to the entire registration revenues of the United States in 1913. Ninety-six per cent of the 1920 revenue was applied to road maintenance or construction.

You Can't Brush Or Wash Out Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid argon, apply it a night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, not if not all, of your dandruff will be gone and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single grain and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid argon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.—Advertisement.

Child Welfare Program Supercedes All Work of Red Cross in Europe

By ROSE WILDER LANE

AMERICAN RED CROSS HEADQUARTERS, PARIS, Feb. 13.—The last few weeks have been a period of change at Paris headquarters. The new child welfare program, a long maturing, has definitely come out of its shell, young but vigorous. This metaphor of the poultry yard is not bad, chicks begin scratching at once, though they eat little for the first two days; then they turn and devour the shell from which they were hatched. It will not be long until all that the Red Cross has been in Europe will be absorbed into what the Red Cross will be in 1921—a great agency for keeping Europe alive by saving her children.

Looking at Europe through glasses that shut out all the adults is a surprising and informing experience. You are appalled by the numbers of refugee children—all Central Europe swarms with them. Poland, the Ukraine, Czechoslovakia, Austria, Hungary, Rumania, Bulgaria, Jugoslavia—from Siberia to the Mediterranean, the peoples have been driven before invading armies like leaves before the directionless gusts of wind in a cyclone. Then, instantly, the honeycomb of new political boundaries was clapped upon them, and they can not get home. Those frontier walls have captured, in almost every nation, children from almost every other nation. Hungarians in Bulgaria and Rumania, Russians in Poland, Thurks, Albanians and Montenegrins in Greece. The confusion is indescribable in families.

BOYS ARE SOLDIERS: ALL SCHOOLS CLOSED.

Look closer, and you see that even in their own countries the children are wandering to and fro, leaderless and unprotected. Last September the great boys' school in Warsaw was closed. A visitor knocked at the locked plate-glass door, and a solitary watchman appeared. He shook his head, unlocked the door to say: "The school is closed. The boys are at the front."

At about the same time, in Galicia, a Red Cross worker found a ragged little boy sitting listlessly on the edge of a station platform. She asked him his name and where he came from. He rose and saluted. "I am a soldier of Poland," he said. He was from a little town 600 miles away; he was 8 years old. "I do not mind being a soldier," he said, "only it's awful hard work, carrying the gun. The gun is so heavy."

The Polish boy has just passed a law under which juvenile criminals will be sentenced to go to trade school, instead of to jail. For the last two years the number of cases of crimes committed by children in Warsaw alone averaged 300 a month, and many of the criminals were 10 and 11 years old, the oldest, 16.

The American in Warsaw can buy food, his dollar is worth 300 or 1000 marks. But more and more the children of Warsaw get their food by begging—and when begging fails, as it does, they get it by any other means. Sit in the restaurants of Warsaw, where for marks you can get a roll and a cup of tea, and you will notice, pressed against the plate-glass window beside your table, the face of a child, ragged and barefooted. Look at it twice and the child makes a beseeching gesture, that says: "Proche pain, I am hungry."

There will be others waiting at the doorway when you go out.

ENGLISH WRITER SEEKS HEAVENLY VIENNA CHILD.

A writer recently went from London to Vienna, with an assignment from an English editor. He said, "Watch the streets of Vienna until you see a healthy, red-cheeked, well-dressed little boy. You'll find him; there is always one. When you find him, tell him how he did it. That will be a story." For heaven's sake, let's have something new out of Vienna.

He was in Vienna three weeks. At nearly the end of his stay, he was sitting in a restaurant filled with well-dressed and well-fed people; adults, all of them, foreign and native. A little girl, probably about 10—though you can not tell age by side or height, in Vienna—entered, and went from table to table, holding out her hand, making a bobbing courtesy, and saying, "Bitte!" She was wrapped in a black shawl and between its folds her face was absolutely expressionless, her eyes dull.

It was the hour of dessert and coffee, waiters were passing among the tables, carrying trays piled with Viennese pastries. The child looked at them without the slightest change in her listless face. When she reached the writer's table he said, "Little girl, won't you have a cake?" The child did not understand.

She looked stupidly at the tray the waiter set before her. She was urged to take one. When she realized that it was actually for her, she did not say a word, but such a rapture came into her face that the diners, toughened to suffering as they were, could not bear it. They broke down and sobbed. The child reverently took the cake, looked at it a long time, and carefully put it in her pocket to take home.

The writer returned to London without the story he had been sent to get.

Shift the scene farther south—across Albania's children, who do not know how to play, but do know how to handle guns—to Montenegro, to Podgoritz, and the street outside the house of the Junior Red Cross. A little girl, 2 years old, kneels at the gates. She does not remember her father and mother; she remembers her big brother, 4 years old, but somehow they were separated in the prison. She is all alone in Podgoritz. Someone has told her to come to this house.

But all day long, and in the night, children are knocking at these gates. The old watchman knows that not all of them can be taken in; he knows that today a new rule has gone into effect. He opens the gate, looks down at the 3-year-old, and says, "No one can come in without a permit from the mayor."

MERE TOT WANDERS.

THROUGH CITY STREETS. Then he closes the gate. Three days later the same child is there again; in her fist she has the permit from the mayor. She has somehow found her way through all the crooked streets, got into the mayor's office, got the permit, and made her way back. How she did it no one knows, she was only 3 years old, and alone in a strange city. She does not tell whether she ate, how she slept, at 3 years one does not talk very much. She has the permit; that satisfies her. She is both fed and goes to sleep, for the first time in her life, in a bed.

Over the mountains and across the Bosphorus, a French soldier stands on the Galata bridge in Constantinople. The city flooded with refugees from the Crimea; the soldier has orders to stop every Russian crossing the bridge, and examine his papers. Here comes a child, not shoulder-high to the guard, wearing a complete little Cosack uniform. The guard stops him; the boy gravely produces his papers. The soldier looks them over, returns them, salutes. The child (12 years old; a first sergeant in Wrangel's army).

He returns the salute, and passes on, into a city where hospitals are crowded with wounded 12 and 14-year-old soldiers.

NO MORE CHILDHOOD EXIST IN EUROPE.

These are children we are seeing, but it is not childhood. There is no more childhood in Europe. We talk of saving the next generation; but these aged little beings in their teens or younger are already this generation of Europe. They carry the burdens of maturity—somehow they manage to carry them, or they fall and go under—though their strength is not that of maturity, and never will be. But their strength is the tribute of half the white races.

They know that their strength is not enough; they know that they must have help. The same sense of childish faith mingle with their precocious knowledge of hardship. Out of Galicia, again, comes the voice of this little girl. She is a letter, in her hand, and it speaks, as all these glimpses of Europe's children do, for many silent and unseen thousands. "God listens when I say pray—" ers." It begins in Polish, which we translate as closely as possible to the original. "It was cold this winter. I froze my ears. My face red and eyes crying. Weather so cold. I thought I pray God and great Mother Mary. I prayed my ears not get cold. Suddenly my ears warm again. I am happy with joy. Same night I went to bed sick. House terrible cold. I stay bed all Friday. Then I was cold again. Wind blew my chest. Ears cold again. Again I pray God and great Mother Mary. Send me warm clothes. Warm my ears. Nothing happened. Tomorrow automobile came Nerva Minsk. Many Americans. They brought lots and lots of clothes. Everybody running out. I run out. Priest got clothes. He gave little boys and girls coat and sweater. Now I am warm. God and great Mother Mary told you prayers. I thank you. Prosie panie! I say no more."

MEMORIAL FUND DRIVE PLANNED BY BERKELEYANS

Citizens Pledge Support To Campaign For Hero Monument.

BERKELEY, March 15.—An intensive three-weeks' drive to put Berkeley's campaign for a $250,000 bond issue for a soldiers memorial over the top was inaugurated last night at a meeting of the citizens' committee presided over by James K. Koford of the Berkeley Lodge of Elks. The issue will come before the voters at the regular municipal election on April 2.

The Chamber of Commerce has lent its aid in the campaign with the announcement that a special committee will be appointed to work in conjunction with the citizens' body.

Frank L. Naylor, president of the Rotary club, and president of the First National bank today came to the fore with a strong appeal in behalf of the bond issue, as did President David P. Barrows of the university.

OLD ENGLISH REMEDY FOR CATARRH, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS, NOISES AND HEAD NOISES.
If you know of some one who is troubled with Catarrh, Deafness, Head Noises, or any of the above, send them this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps total deafness. In England this formula for a long time past have recognized as a catarrh remedy for constitutional disease and necessarily requires constitutional treatment.

Sprays, inhalers, and nose douches are unable to irritate the delicate air passages and force the disease into the middle ear which frequently means total deafness. The following formula may be driven down the air passages towards the lungs, which is equally as dangerous. The following formula which is used extensively in the damp English climate is a constitutional treatment and should prove especially efficacious to sufferers here who live under more favorable climatic conditions.

Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Eucalypti (Double strength). Take this twice a day with a glass of hot water and a little granulated sugar; after undissolved. Take one tablespoonful of this mixture three times a day and hearing improves as the inflammation in the eustachian tubes is reduced. The patient should also take directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system and has a tonic effect that leads to the desired results. The preparation is easy to make, costs little and is pleasant to take. Every person who has catarrh of the nose or ears or who is suffering should give this treatment a trial.—Advertisement.

Elaborate Frocks Displayed At Unique Fashion Revue

Behold the 1921 spring sports costume! MISS GERTJIDE MULQUEEN wears the black-and-white combination of satin and yarn embroidery. And the reception frock! MISS HAZEL KYLL shows the confection of figured georgette and lace over satin. The designs are outlined in beads.

Close Up View of Latest Styles Given to Customers at Private Showing

Something entirely new in the way of Spring openings was introduced last evening by the H. C. Capwell Company of Fourteenth and Clay streets when a private showing to the customers was given from 8 to 10:30 o'clock. Fashions displayed without the aid of mannikins was the novel way of giving the patrons an opportunity to get a "close-up" view of the intricate designs and trimmings which so strongly mark the present period.

In the midst of the setting was a spring garden of fresias, daffodils, geraniums and cyclamen. Cockatoos, their hues as brilliant as the silks and satins and crepes displayed, perched here and there while dainty misses promenaded the gardens ready for golf or an afternoon affair, garbed in crisp Swiss organdies and polka dots.

Display cases revealed exquisite designs in the new Harding blue, tomato red and tangerine, Mandarin yellow and Colbridge gray.

A frock which drew a gasp of wonder from many a spectator, was of tomato hue, a bouffant taffeta corded from top to toe, the skirt high onto a bouffant effect which fashion decrees will appear in many moons. Floral crescents of French flowers in Harding blue dotted the skirt. The bodice, of simple corded taffeta, was made with a square decollete neck. With the gown was worn a necklace of jet and bracelets of the same. Black satin pumps and lace shoes completed the frock and a gorgeous tomato fan was carried.

Again, the new Harding lavender, a luscious orchid evening gown with inset panel of old ivory georgette crepe, with Chantilly lace ruffles. Miniature nosegays in lace frills adorned the bouffant skirt, a corsage of hand-made flowers at the waistline.

Raspberries, pussywillow taffeta made a girlish dancing frock, with a vestee blouse effect, with inset of silver cloth in the bodice. The skirt was of flannel ruffles piped in silver, over a foundation of silver embroidered net. Lovers knots of Harding blue were used in effective design on the skirt. Tiny wing sleeves were of silver lace.

Lovely garden hats of lace and not trimmed in a variety of flowers ranging from the dainty forget-me-nots and mikonette to the simple little corn flowers were worn with the afternoon frocks. For dress pictures hats were of the Swiss make, Philippine weave, visca cloth, Celophane, hair braid and Bavaria cloth.

The fine Milans, Leghorns and fancy straws, trimmed in celluloid and velvet fruits, were for afternoon and street wear. The more vivid colorings in fables, grass de Londres and Canton crepe with cool embroideries and roses made of the finer silks, were for sports attire.

Ten inches from the floor. This is fashion's mandate for the skirt, whether street costume or dancing frock. The new spring suits in the favored gray and navy blue are elaborately embroidered and beaded. The abbreviated skirts in the tailors, however, are narrow sleeves in the bell effects. These must be decidedly different in every frock to be strictly in vogue. The well-dressed women must have a smart hat for each costume. Fine Irish crochet collar and cuffs are worn with the suits, vying with the exclusive filet patterns. This accessory is by far one of the most important in making a toilette.

What can be done with the heavy black taffetas is admirably expressed in a French frock of the same with overspread of fillet creu net and a broad tomato cash of soft satin, the fillet bands piped in black. The skirt made circular as most of the silks, French crepe, is scalloped about the edges, the plain hem a thing of the past. A large hat of net and art silk harmonized with the frock, trimmed in a wreath of red roses, which peeped from beneath the brim.

COOLIDGE GRAY
A sumptuous evening wrap was of circular cut, crepe de meteor and design combined in an all-black wrap with beaded panels of lavender. It enhanced a black evening gown embroidered in Harding blue sequins stitched in floral pattern. Coolidge gray was exemplified in an afternoon and morning frock. Tiny pearl buttons could be used in a stunning embroidery design upon a gown shown in a gray afternoon frock with touches of white wool stitching the bodice and skirt. The quaint blouse suggested Russian design.

A little blouse of gray taffeta, ruffled lined in tangerine, introduced the Elizabethan ruff, the newest in collar effect and the puffed sleeves. A summer frock of taffeta and polka dot organdie was fashioned with wide peaked collar, lace at the elbow, and a quaker collar trimming the silk bodice. A net hat tomato red and tangerine, Mandarin yellow and Colbridge gray.

ASSASSIN SAYS PAY HER, SHE WILL DIE SOON

MADRID, March 15.—Police officers who searched Pedro Mateo, the young anarchist, who yesterday confessed that he was one of the assassins of Premier Dato, found a list of the names of prominent Spaniards and they believe the persons had been marked for death by the anarchists.

Mateo blamed his landlady for betraying him, and said to the police:

"You had better pay her the money she has earned in denouncing me for possibly, she will not live long to enjoy it."

Setting Sun Dazzles Man Driving East

Henry Weiner of Piedmont was suing E. F. Perkins of Berkeley for $118.10 damages suffered when Perkins' automobile collided with that of Weiner in Berkeley.

"I was driving eastward on Durant avenue," said Perkins, "and my eyes were dazzled by the rays of the setting sun."

"What!" exclaimed Judge Puleifer, "was the sun setting in the east that day?"

It was finally explained that the rays which dazzled Perkins were reflected from windows in the distance. Judge Puleifer decided that Weiner was not entitled to the entire amount asked, but took under advisement the demand for $25 injuries to his wife.

(Toilet Tips)
A safe, certain method for ridding the skin of ugly, hairy growths is as follows: Mix a paste with some powdered talc and water, apply to hairy surface about 2 minutes. Then rub off the skin and the hairs are gone. This is entirely harmless and seldom requires repeating, but to avoid disappointment it is advisable to see that you get genuine depilatory. Mix fresh as wanted.—Advertisement.

San Francisco News

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—Joseph Nogue, a taxi driver of 1330 Pacific street, suffered concussion of the brain and severe lacerations in a collision of automobiles today at Alameda and Valencia streets. He was treated at St. Luke's hospital. His car collided with a truck driven by E. Tambussi of 604 Front street.

Charles Swanson, 252 Sixth street, was held up and beaten by two footpads on Bryant street, near Fifth, early today. The robbers stepped from a doorway, hit him with a blunt instrument and took $15 from him. He was treated at the Central Emergency hospital for lacerations of the scalp.

When Miss Ivy Burton of 1290 Twenty-sixth avenue found herself confronted by three footpads armed with revolvers near her home, at a late hour last night, she used the only weapon at her disposal—her voice. Screaming lustily for her brother, whom she could see in the window of her residence, she so frightened the robbers that they fled into Golden Gate park.

The wine cellar of J. J. Pera, 846 Green street, was looted by burglars early today, who took everything it contained, including a barrel of claret and fifty bottles of that beverage.

Max Bedacht May Be in Chicago Jail

Allegation that Max Bedacht, alleged criminal syndicalist, may be in Chicago jail, was made in Illinois now as a "red," was made in court by District Attorney Ezra D. Cato when the case of Bedacht came before Judge L. S. Church today.

"We will continue this matter until April 19 to make sure that the Chicago authorities have really got Bedacht," said Judge Church, after hearing a statement from the district attorney.

The trial of E. V. Smith, alleged syndicalist, was continued until May 16.

The case of Don H. Summerville, who pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary, was referred to the probation officer. POLICE WASH OUT ONE TRADITION OF 'VAG CHAMP'

Man Arrested 100 Times in 35 Years Is Directed to Wander On.

BERKELEY, March 15.—Arrested 100 times in his 35 years of life and knowing no place that he could call home for 23 years, Charles Kellogg, champion "vag" of the country, paid a visit to Berkeley yesterday.

Kellogg boasts having seen the inside of more jails in the United States than any other person. He was found curled up on a bench at the Key Route station last night by Patrolman W. A. Gordon. His slumbers were disturbed by the officer and he was given a trip to police station.

"Like to wash up a bit?" asked the arresting officer.

"No, wash," answered the visitor. "Why I haven't had a bath in twenty years."

Right there Kellogg was forced to shower and wash. He was treated to an antiseptic scrubbing and furnished with clean clothes. The last home he remembers, Kellogg says, was in Montana 23 years ago. Since then he says he has been giving the country the "once over." He walked to Berkeley from Crockett yesterday, having been recently released from the county hospital at Martinez. Kellogg was sent on his way to other parts this morning.

San Franciscan Is Mentioned in Stokes' Divorce

Edgar T. Wallace, Mining Man, Denies Misconduct With Millionaire's Wife.

NEW YORK, March 15.—(United Press)—Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes and Edgar T. Wallace of San Francisco in disheveled gowns Mrs. Genevieve de Anquinis when she entered Wallace's apartment here one day in 1914, the latter testified in the Stokes divorce trial today.

Mrs. Anquinis said she had called to leave a pup which Wallace desired to buy. She found Miss Florence McCormick, she said, sitting at a table on which were three glasses and a bottle. As she waited, she said, Wallace emerged from a bathroom, clad in his pajamas. Mrs. Stokes followed him out, she said, but screamed and retreated when she saw the visitor.

"I'm afraid I must be intruding," Mrs. de Anquinis said and fled, leaving the puppy.

WALLACE REPORTED AS DOG FANCIER

The witness related that she occupied the apartment above Wallace's just vacated by Mrs. Matresolin, a previous witness. With Mrs. de Anquinis was Miss Gladys Dale, dog fancier, to one of whose pups Wallace had taken a fancy.

The witness said she knew Mrs. Stokes as Miss Helen Elwood, whom she had met before her marriage to W. E. D. Stokes, wealthy hotel man, now suing for divorce.

Mrs. de Anquinis said she frequently saw Mrs. Stokes later calling at the Wallace apartments.

Mrs. Z. N. Matteson was dismissed as a witness today on completion of cross-examination which brought out her early history. She said her first husband was W. J. Kelly, advertising man for the Cotton Belt railroad at St. Louis, and that she later lived in Denver where Kelly died. She said she was born in Columbus, Ohio, and that a sister lives in Memphis, Tenn.

WALLACE DENIES MISCONDUCT CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—Edgar T. Wallace, whose name was brought into the testimony in the Stokes divorce case in New York, refused to discuss the case today further than to deny emphatically that he was guilty of any misconduct.

"I have not seen Mrs. Stokes since a year before she was married," he said today. "That was about eleven years ago. I have neither corresponded with her or talked with her since. I never went anywhere with her in my life. I met her in Denver and later I met her and her mother in New York, but the conduct attributed to me is not only untrue but foolish. Mrs. Stokes never visited my apartment in New York in 1914

POLICEMAN HAS GOOD MEMORY; BROKER IS FINED

Vendor of Aged Eggs Pays
$25 Fine; Woman
Forfeits Bail.

When Edward Havens, an insurance broker, defied Traffic Officer R. C. McDowell several weeks ago "stepping on" and "driving on" after the policeman ordered him to halt at the intersection of Eighteenth street and San Pablo avenue, he reckoned without the capacity of McDowell's memory. It cost him a $25 fine today when he appeared before Judge Smith.

Havens expressed surprise today when he appeared in court and heard the charge read. "I didn't suppose the officer would remember that long," he said.

Officer McDowell related Havens' contumacious behavior today, although he was unable to catch the license numbers when the car sped by him; he took a good look at the car and mailed for his appearance. Havens drove by McDowell again yesterday and the officer took the numbers and had a summons issued.

VENDOR FINED $25.
Because W. L. Garland, a produce vendor, sold eggs of doubtful age which were held by Police Court Judge Edward Tverell to be unfit for human consumption, he was today assessed a fine of $25 when he appeared on a charge of violating the pure food laws.

Earl Taylor, 24 years old, accused by the police of having a long previous record, and said to be a persistent offender, was given a partial hearing today in Police Judge Tverell's court on a charge of robbing the room of John Belshies in the Baldwin hotel, 629 Eighth street. He is charged with stealing a wallet containing $20 in cash and a check for $50.

John Haeckel, 27, was committed to the superior court, to stand trial on a charge of burglary today, following a preliminary examination before Police Judge Mortimer Smith. He is accused of sneaking into a grocery store conducted by Giacomo Ratto at 601 Washington street on the night of March 6. Bail was set at $500.

WOMAN FORFEITS BAIL.

A deposit of $100 bail was ordered forfeited today by Police Judge Edward J. Tverell when Hazel Shea, alias Pappas, arrested on a charge of vagrancy a week ago failed to appear in court to face the charges.

A sixty-day jail sentence was today imposed on Carl H. Park, 22, following his conviction in Police Judge Mortimer Smith's court on a charge of robbing a store. The specific accusation was shoplifting from Kahn's department store.

Student Artists Design Scenes and Costumes For Greek Theater Presentation of 'Kismet'

Civil War Veteran Injured By Train

BERKELEY, March 15.—Michael E. Ryan, 72-year-old Civil War veteran of 2706 Otis street is recovering today from shock, bruises and lacerations sustained yesterday afternoon when he was struck by a Key Route train at Ashby avenue and Adeline street Berkeley. Ryan became confused in crossing the street and dodged one train only to run in front of another.

Brilliant Oriental Setting Will Be Given Production on Night of April 20

BERKELEY, March 15.—Artisans and artists are joining together at the University of California to perfect the properties and costumes for the production of "Kismet" which will be given in the Greek theater by the English club. Under the experienced hand of George Lark, director of the Fulton Playhouse, the student artists have designed scenes and costumes which will transform the stone walls of the Greek theater into a brilliant Oriental setting on the night of April 20.

Art honor societies and the entire school of architecture have set to work planning for the coming production, which will be the most pretentious ever attempted by the college actors. The costumes for many of the large cast of more than a hundred will be designed and made by the students, and the garments of the principal characters will be sketched by the artists and made in San Francisco.

The gowns of Marie Louise Myers, who is transformed from beggar girl to queen in the course of the plot will be of rich material and of a design especially for the occasion.

3 POLICEMEN DROPPED FROM OAKLAND FORCE

Campaign Is Begun To Purge Department Of Its Ineffectives.

One week ago the Oakland Police Department numbered 286 effectives. Today it numbers 283. The Department of Public Health and Safety today requested the Civil Service Board to order medical examinations for four new policemen to take the place of four who are going on leave.

The department today named the following policemen, which have implicated themselves, the chief of police in such cases resigning or "being resigned" during the week.

1—A new policeman who is found to have a record in other cities as a small burglar. This policeman was allowed to resign. He turned in his badge and star last Wednesday.

2—A policeman on special duty, whose job it was to investigate and arrest places where immoral acts were going on. This policeman's reports were full of condescension and beautifully written, but when the man's investigations were checked up it was alleged that he had offered protection to some of the places he investigated him. This man has also left the force.

3—A policeman who is alleged to have had a liking for peeping over transoms in a lodging-house. The matter was investigated by the officials of the Eastern station and this policeman is not now one of the "effectives" on the force.

4—This case is under investigation. It involves no direct moral

MINER HEIR TO $50,000 ESTATE IS OAKLAND MAN

Hears of Good Fortune When He Pays Visit to Sister
At Marysville.

Word was received in this city today by Mrs. George T. Wilderman that her husband, for whom she has been searching for several months, in order to inform him that he has fallen heir to an estate of $50,000, has been located in Marysville.

Wilderman in ignorance of the fact that his brother, John Milton Wilderman, had died and left him his estate, spent last winter in the hills near Redding, prospecting for gold. Yesterday he went to Marysville to visit his sister, Mrs. Sam Johnson, and she informed him of his legacy.

When she informed her sister of her husband's death, Mrs. Wilderman told local authorities that Wilderman left last April, a victim of the wanderlust. Mrs. Wilderman, following her husband's disappearance, worked in a local restaurant to support herself and 11-year-old daughter.

Wilderman's brother was a rancher and cattle raiser in Fall River, Lassen county. He died last November.

Many Men

Many men won't take medicine until they are flat on their backs in bed—they fume and fuss about it then, and only take it because they think it will get them back on the job in a day or two.

But Nature has a funny little way of sending out warning signals of approaching danger. That crampy pain in the shoulder that makes you feel muscle bound, might seem to pass away when your blood is circulating freely—neglect it, and it may develop into the most excruciating form of Neuritis—then, oh! boy, you'll get a run for your money.

You gentlemen who suffer from neuritis and inflammation of the nerves know what we mean.

Then you get crabby and cranky—everything, everywhere is all wrong, while perhaps if you had risked a dollar you could have been relieved when the first symptoms appeared.

For that piercing, cutting pain in the shoulder, sore muscles, wandering pain and nerve inflammation, try

Innocent Man Bitter At Being Imprisoned

Arthur Flood, who was arrested several weeks ago on a suspect in the Alvarado Bank robbery, was released from the county jail today at the request of District Attorney Ezra Leacock.

"We have learned the names of the real robbers," said Leacock today when Flood appeared before Judge L. S. Church, "and we find that Flood was innocent."

Flood protested against his incarceration. He said:

"I have been confined for more than two months and denied my liberty. I feel bitter, all the more bitter about it because I was innocent of any participation or knowledge of the crime whatever."

New Artists Named For Oratorio Program

BERKELEY, March 15.—Myra Sharlow, soprano, and Maude King Clark, contralto, have been selected by Choragus Paul Steindorff of the University to interpret the leading roles in Rossini's "Stabat Mater" and Haydn's "New Earth," which will be offered in the Greek theater the afternoon of Good Friday, March 25.

Other soloists will include John B. Siefert and George W. Piner, tenors, and Henry L. Perry, bass. The chorus of more than two hundred voices will be selected from among members of the Berkeley Oratorio Society, the Wednesday Morning Choral club of Oakland, and the San Francisco Choral society.

Juanita's New Juan Here; His Name Is John Miller; Wedding Set for April 16

Juanita Miller, daughter of California's poet, Joaquin Miller, has announced the date of her engagement to the man whom several weeks ago she sketched through a TRIBUNE artist for TRIBUNE readers.

He is John Miller, traveler and artist. The ceremony will take place at an outdoor wedding party on the night of April 16.

Public interest was aroused when a man of decided foreign appearance called at the county clerk's office and inquired about the divorce papers that restored Juanita to the single state after her romantic and eventful wedding to Juan Reyes, which proved unsuccessful. The stranger was informed that a final decree of divorce had been granted and that Miss Miller was free to embark once more upon the turbulent sea of matrimony.

According to the poet's daughter, John Miller, the real Juan came to visit her father last year. The moonlight, the mountain home and its surroundings somehow, she explains, encouraged the presence of Juan (Jupit), who hid in the bushes overhead and shot little stinging darts at the pair down upon the trees.

THEIR FIRST KISS

John kissed her so suddenly one evening that it almost took her breath away, and then he kissed her again and then he kissed her back. It was a plain case of love.

There begins the story which will have its ending on the night of April 16, when John and Juanita become one. John asked Juanita to marry him but it was at a time when her poet father was ill and needed her help. She asked John to wait and then he went away and since that time has been traveling in Europe, painting a little, writing a little and taking all photos.

REAL JUAN RETURNS

And now the real Juan has returned, he and Juanita have plighted their troth, and on the April evening, when the moon is full, her dream-love and she will walk down the holy bridal path, the same path which she walked with Juan, to the waiting minister, who will unite them in the presence of an invited throng of friends. The ceremony will emerge into a feast, similar to a banquet. The affair will take place under the cathedral of trees that surround the poet's home.

Juanita has celebrated the coming event by writing a poem. It reads:

"Love he sent me through the ether,
Strong as any thunderstorm;
Let the written words he sent me
Were but scarcely warm.
I am building—time will tell
Whether it be ill or well."

WRITES "NUPTIAL ODE"
She has also written a "Nuptial Ode" which will be read aloud while the feast is being prepared following the ceremony. It is entitled "Sure the Heart of Him is Home Enough for Me."

When the cycle of while Mies, upon which Juanita's life is said by her to revolve, is successfully turning again, the husband will probably

In the Alaska Gold Rush of 1902

When thousands of men rushed to Alaska for gold, it was necessary to ship in sufficient food to last through the long winter months. In such a climate, coffee, when packed in the ordinary way, deteriorates rapidly, but Hills Bros., who originated the vacuum process several years previously, were there with Red Can Coffee, packed in vacuum cans, insuring the Klondikers of having their coffee as fresh and flavorful as when at home.

STORM VICTIMS ARE HOME FROM ILL-FATED TRIP

Captain Winther, Wife and Baby of Schooner Inca Arrive in Oakland.

After a strenuous experience with a hurricane in which his vessel, the schooner Inca, was dismantled off the coast of Australia, Captain James J. Winther, his wife and eight-month-old baby arrived at their home 318 East Fourteenth street, today. They landed in San Francisco yesterday on the steamer Sonoma of the Occocean line.

Winther, in command of the schooner Inca, sailed from Eureka last October for Sydney with a cargo of 1,000,000 feet of lumber. After 50 days and when near the coast of Australia, the schooner encountered heavy seas and soon was at the mercy of the gale. For days the vessel was tossed about and driven from her path. When 240 miles from Newcastle the vessel began to leak rapidly and Captain Winther ordered the deck boat jettisoned.

Two days later the bigger sparker mizen mast in and top masts were carried away. Shortly afterwards the windjammer's midship deckhouse was swept overboard. During this time the weather had become so rough that it was impossible to launch a lifeboat, but the following day it abated somewhat and Captain Winther ordered a small boat to be equipped and launched. In this he placed his wife and baby and nine members of the crew. He himself and a donkeyman and a carpenter named Ross refused to leave the schooner and finally worked her into port. After drifting about for three days the boat with Mrs. Winther and her baby was picked up by a steamer and she was taken to Sydney, where she later was joined by her husband, who arrived safely.

work is the paramount need of the hour. In the opinion of Professor J. Edgar Smith, editor and author, who last week opened the annual Earl series lectures under the auspices of the University of Chicago, "There is so much distrust abroad that a better way of thinking must be necessary before we can attain the peace that may set us free."

Smith, who is professor of the University of Chicago and editor of the Journal of Religion, said last night at the Congregational Union's "Vision of a Millennium" as the title of a series on "The Christian World," Dr. Smith said:

CHRISTIANITY TESTED

"Christianity today is being tested in the minds of men, not so much as to its doctrinal content as with regard to its spiritual power. The great and its consequences have made us fully aware that we live in a world of spiritual confusion. The appeal is being made to Christianity to inspire and the spiritual power to save the world here? The judgment will be rendered upon the answer given to this question.

"One of the most striking of Christianity is its creative power in social organization. In the past, it has created the following: the inspiration of which has insisted upon the creation of a righteous world. It is the purpose of these lectures to consider the ways in which this creative inspiration in Christianity has pressed itself, and to define opportunity which lies before the church today.

"The social optimism of religion goes back to the prophets. Throughout the day of the prophet, the social and political outlook seemed a part of the religious outlook. The prophet looked for a Day of the Lord, when powers of evil should be suppressed and righteousness should be established. The prophet looked for the kingdom of God which kept faith vigorous.

"POKER GAMES BREAK LAW"—DECOTO
Green-Topped Tables Neglected Homes
FEAR GRIPS WOMEN CARD PLAYERS

No longer a secret is the reason for the great fear on the part of women who conduct poker games in the "house," and as such they are flagrantly violating the law, is the word which has come to affirm the suspicions of the "stranger" who followed them for ten days.

District Attorney Ezra Decoto himself is authority for the statement. The district attorney goes further and says that it is the duty of the Oakland police to close all three of the card games and prosecute the women who have made their living from them for the last several years.

Here is what the district attorney says concerning the matter.

STATE LAW FORBIDS TAKING OF PERCENTAGE.

"The state law provides that there shall be no percentage taken from any card game, and furthermore, that there shall be no banker present. An admission fee may be charged under the state law or a fee of so much an hour levied on the card players, but it specifies that NO PERCENTAGE OF ANY KIND can be taken from any of the "pots."

If ten cents is taken from every "ace pot," it is charged as being done at games in Oakland, then these games ARE percentage games and as such are illegal. It does not matter for what use the money taken from any pot is put to, the fact that money is taken out makes it a percentage game. It is clearly the duty of the Oakland police to prosecute the women who conduct the game under the state gambling laws.

"That there are chips taken from every 'ace pot' and that these chips, equivalent to ten cents each, go to pay for the cards and by the players is readily admitted by the women who conduct the gambling houses. They do not explain, however, do these women, why they take no questions are asked, paid for, chips continue to disappear from the 'ace pots'."

OWNER EXPLAINS "PERCENTAGE" METHOD.

In every instance it is a "steady player" and a "trusted friend" who watches out for the interests of the lady of the house. It is an understood rule among the players, about the percentages to be taken, and no questions are asked. In fact, at the flat on East Eleventh street it was not mentioned. The investigator noticed a little pile of chips growing up at the side of a woman player at the table, a separate pile from the player's own, and she wondered about it. She found out later that the same pile was duplicated at each of the other two tables in operation and the winner of every "ace pot" contributed her bit to the "house."

At the West Oakland house the stranger noticed the same thing and she determined to find out exactly why it was done. Here the women talked, however, about the money which must be taken out to pay for the cards, but the investigator was determined to put the lady of the house on record on the matter, so when she was departing and "cashing in" her chips she asked what arrangement was made to pay for the cards.

WOMEN CLEARLY ARE EVADING LAW.

"How much do you want from me?" she inquired.

"Nothing," responded Mrs. W.— "The cards are paid for from the ace pots. Ten cents is taken out of each one."

Here is the evidence itself in the words of a woman who knows more about the matter than anyone else—except perhaps the other two women who conduct similar games.

As to the Oakland laws regulating card games, it is evident that the women managers of poker houses have cleverly evaded the long arm of the authorities.

The provisions of an ordinance which was hastily drawn up on December 10, 1917, following complaints reaching the police concerning card games conducted in public halls, say nothing about games which may be managed for profit in private homes.

It is hereby declared to be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, association or social club to conduct or participate in any card game in any public place, or to which an admission fee is levied, unless such person, firm, corporation, association or social club shall have first obtained a permit from the chief of police.

It is further provided that any person who violates the provisions of this ordinance, which goes on to state that further requirements must be carried out before such games can be conducted, concerning card games conducted in public halls, say nothing about

FIVE IMPRISONMENT PROVIDED BY LAW.

Violations of the provisions of the ordinance are made punishable by a fine not exceeding $500 or by imprisonment in the city prison at the rate of one day for each $250, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

There is no actual admission fee charged to the card games in Oakland. In the words of one prominent woman player, the women who conduct the gambling houses "get around" the law by charging fifty cents for a meager luncheon served to the players. Some of the women, however, do not partake of luncheon, but pay their fifty cents nevertheless. These are the exception rather than the rule, however, for to play the game safely in the eyes of the law must eat whether one cares to or not.

Moreover, the places in which the games are conducted are not public places and the law on this point is again side-stepped. Loopholes in the ordinance which was the main side-out of business at two downtown halls were eagerly sought—and found—by the women whose livelihood comes from the card tables.

ALL GAMES WARNED ABOUT INVESTIGATION.

But if the women have adroitly side-stepped local ordinances, they are liable to prosecution under state laws, according to the statement of District Attorney Decoto.

That some phase of the law is being violated is obvious. If not, why the fear? It did not take twenty-four hours for the news of the investigator's first visit to be flashed to the other gambling places in Oakland, so it was discovered later. Warning of the stranger who sought to play was given by Mrs. K— of the East Eleventh apartment to other of her colleagues in the gambling business.

She was even accused of being a worker from the Public Welfare League, so the investigator found out later. It was Mrs. K— who so labeled her, in telephoning her warnings to her friends in the business.

WHIST IS SIDETRACKED FOR POKER PITIES.

Another thing, too, must be stated by the investigator in her final summing up of her "evidence." At the two Oakland halls where card games were run out of business, whist was the game played at a charge of so much a player.

It is poker which now occupies the almost undivided attention of practically the same group of women—both players and managers. If the "fee" of fifty cents charged for luncheon is all the gain the managers of the various houses get from the games, why should not whist continue to be the form of cards played? For the women who play are fond of whist—they demonstrate that fact by traveling to San Francisco for professionally conducted games of that kind.

So, here it seems is additional evidence that the women who manage the poker games are not content with the fifty-cent fee as charged for "cards." And it is thus logical to assume that they are compensated in other ways—as, for instance, as has already been stated, by "percentages" from the ace pots and maybe "contributions" from lited players.

FEAR PROVES THEM VIOLATORS OF LAW.

That the women who conduct games and who play at them know that they are violating the law is certain. They insist to themselves and others that they are not, but they are constantly on the defensive and on the alert against detection. They do not fear the "disgrace" of being branded as a poker player. That, too, is also certain, for cards are their very lives and the only diversion and friends they have are in the same poker-playing circles. So that, then, is not the principal reason.

The district attorney of Alameda county gives the real reason for their alarm and their caution. They are afraid because they know they are violators of the law.

FINGER BROKEN BY BALL.

DON'T TAKE A CHANCE

"Don't do it, Mayme. You'll lose out and you know it. You simply can't go down and apply for a job looking like that. In the first place you're not at all tailored looking; in the second place your dress is very shabby. Spruce up, look the boss in the eye and you'll get a lot further."

"Have on, Alice; how's it going to be done? Wait till I work a while and save up and then—"

And then, what, Mayme? Do you mean to say you haven't heard of Cherry's? Of their store for men at 825 13th street and the store for women at 515 13th street, where you can get suits and coats and dresses and waists and hats and everything you want in liberal credit and in the long run you don't pay any more than you'd have to at the cash stores. If you haven't, go there and get acquainted, and that's all you'll get. You'll get some new clothes and a new job along with it. —Advertisement.

THIRTY STRONG
GANG MEMBER
PLEADS GUILTYRea's Case Goes To Probation
Officer; Beebe Trial
Nears Close.

Prescott N. Rea, member of the so-called "Thirty Strong" gang, who turned state's evidence and revealed the names of the criminal chiefs to District Attorney Ezra Decoto, pleaded guilty to the charge of receiving stolen property in connection with an Alvarado store robbery before Judge L. S. Church today and had his case referred to the probation officer.

It is said that the district attorney will not oppose probation for Rea as a reward for his information about the gang. Goods from the Ralph store in Alvarado was found in Rea's room when he was arrested.

Shortly after the disposal of the Rea case the trial of Jack Beebe, charged as one of the principals in the Alvarado bank robbery, was resumed before a jury in Judge L. S. Church's court, with a number of witnesses identifying Beebe. Mr. Christina Anderson was positive that it was Beebe who stuck a gun in her face and made her keep her hands on the desk in plain view while his pals ransacked the safe and cash drawers. President August May and Theodore Lyndackers also gave damaging testimony against Beebe.

Decoto said that he expected the Beebe case would be submitted to the jury in time for a verdict to be reached early tomorrow morning.

Cities Requested to Unite
On Public Utilities Question

TRIBUNE BUREAU, SACRAMENTO, March 15.—Opposition by the cities to the public utilities amendments, as drafted by the city attorneys of the Eastbay cities, has been in a decision of the committee on public utilities in the Assembly to defer action until such time as the cities may get together on a plan which will support a common opposition to the amendments. It is expected that out of that group of cities, suggestions that will be made by the assembly committee will be considered at next month.

The Berkeley objections were voiced by City Attorney Frank Cornish of that city and are said to represent the sentiment of Mayor Louis Harder. The first concerned the language of the statement of the purposes of the utility district in which it was said that it was recognized that the duties to be performed by the district were of a nature which could not be handled by any one city.

Cornish has most of the other city attorneys present against him in this argument, but because the point was not considered important, it was agreed that the sentence could be eliminated. Then the Berkeley attorney directed his attack on the provision which would require a majority vote of the district to be permitted to carry the plan, holding that a majority in each city should be obtained.

Both of the Berkeley objections were aimed to make it possible for Berkeley to act alone in the district matter, to form a public utility district, or a city and county government which could act as a district and Cornish's unwillingness to join in any plan which would not allow the withdrawal of Berkeley was made evident.

In this plan he met with strong opposition from members of the committee and from attorneys present.

Boy, 6, Begs Alms
To Support Family

ALAMEDA, March 15.—Police- man Louis Meyer found 6-year-old John Lopez, 1502 Eureka avenue, begging at the Grand street station last night.

Complaint was made to Meyer that a small boy was accosting the passengers on the evening trains. Meyer took the boy in charge.

Police man Angelina Vaughn's investigation revealed the fact that the family was almost destitute. The father is in the hospital and the mother is attempting to support six children with the aid of Johnnie and a slightly older brother.

Mrs. Buleah Spunn of the Alameda Social Service Board was notified and she now has the case in charge.
